To Whom it May Concern,

ELECTORAL REVIEW OF WILTSHIRE: FURTHER LIMITED DRAFT RECOMMENDATIONS

The independent Local Government Boundary Commission for England has today opened a new phase of public consultation in its review of Wiltshire Council's electoral ward boundaries.

The Commission is now undertaking a further limited consultation on proposals for South and South-East Wiltshire. The Commission is satisfied with the evidence received for the rest of the council and is therefore not seeking further opinions and comments (submissions) on areas other than South and South-East. More information regarding the further limited draft recommendations for Wiltshire can be found on our website: <http://www.lgbce.org.uk/all-reviews/south-west/wiltshire/wiltshire-unitary-authority-ua>.

The Commission would welcome submissions on the further draft recommendations by 29 July 2019. Our final recommendations for the whole of the council area will now be published in October 2019.

If you have any further questions on the review, please contact me at the address below.

Yours sincerely,

David Owen
